I. Purpose

The purpose of this General Order is to establish procedures for training in specialized assignments.

II. Policy

Employees assigned to specialized activities shall receive specialized training related to the activity, to provide the skills, knowledge and abilities particular to the specialization.

III. Definitions

(This section intentionally left blank).

IV. Regulations

(This section intentionally left blank).

V. Procedures

A. Specialized Training

1. Specialized training should be provided to employees whenever possible prior to assignment to the specific component or function, but may include supervised on-the-job training.
2. Specialized training may address supervisor, management and/or executive development training. Middle and upper level management employees may receive advanced training to supplement pre-promotional training or executive development training. All employees may receive advanced training to enhance specialization in topics of interest to the employee and the department.
3. All newly promoted employees will receive training in their new assignment prior to being assigned or within one year of assignment (LE 33.8.2; COM 5.2.12).
4. The following activities within the department require specialized training and includes a description of the required training and retraining requirements (LE 33.6.1a & b; COM 5.2.10a & b):
